1. Before leaving the Fairview Heights Station make sure the train you are to meet has entered the station. If train doesn't arrive on time contact the radio room for instructions.
2. After boarding passengers at Fairview Heights Station check to see what stations passengers need to go to and only enter the station that you have passengers for.
3. If you have no passengers and have met your scheduled train you may turn into the Illinois Station after contacting the Radio Room.